

Phil Zambrana, Jr. has a history of service to the residents of Milltown. From 2011-2016, he was a member of the Board of Education. During the last 3 years of his term, he served as the Chair of the Finance and Facilities Committee and as the liaison to the Spotswood Board of Education. Presently, Phil is a member of the Milltown Planning Board, Milltown Environmental Commission and Milltown 4th of July Committee.

Phil is a graduate of Baruch College with a degree in Finance. He is currently employed as a Business Manager with the Human Genetics Institute of New Jersey for Rutgers University located on Busch Campus in Piscataway, New Jersey (<https://hginj.org>). Phil was previously employed within the University as a Research Contract / Grant Specialist with the Office of Research, as well as an Assistant Business Manager for the School of Social Work.

Prior to joining Rutgers University, Phil spent 10 years working for several start-up companies in New York in the media (About.com), college sports (CSTV) and Sirius Satellite Radio (LIME Radio), where he was the financial steward for those operations.

Born and raised in Queens, New York, Phil moved to Milltown 14 years ago with his wife Andrea and two daughters, Kayla and Mia. In his spare time, Phil is an ardent sports enthusiast who enjoys following all of the tri-state area sports teams and spending time with family and friends.